Heavy Damages Claimed

[illegible] Sept 1 — The widows of the [illegible] men who were murdered [illegible] have brought suit against the Sheriff and citizens for $20,000 in each case.

Loss of Life on the Metis

New London, Sept 1 — The total number of lives lost by the Metis disaster is now reduced to 22. Several bodies at Watch Hill await identification.

Sickles' Relations with Spain

Washington, Sept 1 — Recent accounts from Spain show friendly feelings to exist between Minister Sickles and the Spanish Government. It has been stated to be expected that he remain at Madrid and therefore his letter of recall will not be presented. Sickles continues to press on the Government his views in regard to slavery in the Spanish Colonies. The Spanish Government has again expressed its desire to give full effect to the decree for the gradual abolition of slavery.

No Minister at St. Petersburg

Washington, Sept 1 — As there are no questions which require the presence of the U S Minister at St Petersburg, no appointment will be made at present to supply the vacancy [illegible] by the resignation of Curtin.

Robbing U. S. Officers

New York, Sept 1 — A [illegible] special [illegible] deputy [illegible] Roach and Edward Smith while in charge of their official duties were assaulted by about 30 men who shot Roach through the arm and beat him nearly to death. Smith was [illegible] badly beaten. Smith was shot through the arm, and Edward Wilson, a friend of Roach, was shot fatally. Commissioner Cox says he is unable to execute the law and calls on the U S Marshal for assistance.

Miscellaneous Eastern News

New York, Sept 1 — A delegation of sporting men passed through Albany to-day on their way to Canada to see Edwards and Chambers fight. It is probable that Mace and Coburn will meet in the same ring and fight for the stakes now in Arish's hands.

Providence, R I, Sept 1 — The steamer Na[illegible] bound from New York [illegible] collided with an unknown schooner on the Sound on Saturday night. The engines of the steamer having been reversed the shock did but slight injury. The Captain of the steamer charges the Captain of the schooner with suddenly and improperly changing her course.

New York, Sept 1 — Robert Dunn alias Bob Isaacs, of No 12 Liberty street, a notorious gambler, was shot dead this evening in a saloon known as the Place, No 256 Hudson street, by Sharkey, a gambler well known from his connection with the Lord bond robbery. Sharkey has escaped arrest so far.

WASHINGTON CITY

From Geneva

Washington, Sept 1 — Latest advices from Geneva reiterate that the proceedings before the tribunal of arbitration progress favorably to this Government, but are silent as to the probable amount of money awarded.

MEXICO

Interesting from the Revolutionary Country.

City of Mexico, August 15, via Havana, August 31 — The Cabinet remains unchanged.

Diaz has refused to accept amnesty and fled to the mountains, from whence he is supposed to be making his way to California.

Lozada is at Tepic and has given his adherence to the Federal Government.

Gomez Palacios and Carlos Mejia, of the American and Mexican Mixed Commission at Washington, have arrived at the Capital.

The Hall of Congress was totally destroyed by fire on the 23d of July.

A large amount of new business compelling his personal attendance will prevent the departure of U S Minister Nelson for the present. He will probably leave on October 1st.

It is believed here that Lerdo will sustain Guzman's course in the business of the Mixed Commission, as it is known here that Guzman had instructions to raise the question in the Commission in order to delay a settlement at the [illegible] session of Congress, which begins September 16th.

The Federalist, an old Juarez organ, opposes the nomination of Grant, and says he is expected to visit Mexico next spring. Confidence in the Government is returning and business increasing.

WEST INDIES.

Cuban Affairs

Havana, August 31 — Manuel Casto and Pedro Sotolongo, members of the Spanish Council, sailed for Spain yesterday to lay before the Government views of the Spaniards here regarding the proposed issue of bonds to the amount of $60,000,000.

The Next Pope

[illegible] PIUS IX'S [illegible] THE ELECTION OF HIS SUCCESSOR

(From the N Y Herald)

The Pope has taken a most important step. He has, it is believed, signed a bull directing what is to be done at the election of his successor in the event of the European Governments interfering with the conclave. It is known that formerly, when relations of mutual protection and alliance existed between the Papal See and European sovereigns, the latter were allowed to exercise veto power under certain conditions against the election of any objectionable candidate. But under existing circumstances it would seem only decent that these Governments, having abandoned the Pope in his necessity, should let him alone. The German Government, however, manifests its position while proscribing the Church in its own dominions with the one hand, to interfere at Rome with the other. The [illegible], for instance, speaking, no doubt, by inspiration from high quarters, in an article on the election of the next Pope, points out that the interests and duties of Governments at Papal elections have increased since the ancient independence of the bishops has been destroyed, and the Pope himself has acquired the power to assume the exercise of episcopal rights in every diocese. Before Governments permit the exercise of such rights over their subjects they must ask themselves whether the election of the Pope and his personal character afford the guarantees which they are entitled and bound to demand against the abuse of such arbitrary power. The reported bull is said to provide means by which any such interference as is here hinted at shall be made innocuous. But it is not to be forgotten that the Italian Government is in a position to do violence toward the conclave if it [illegible] in order to compel the election of a Pope who will make terms with Italy, or to prevent the election of any at all. The latter event is freely spoken of by the Italian Radicals, who assert that with the death of Pius IX the Papacy shall d

The Salt Lake [illegible], an organ, says the most noisy and demonstrative of these reformers who come to the rescue of Mormon women happen to be some of the most licentious specimens of the male sex, and the rescue they design and endeavor to effect is one which drags woman to the lowest depths of degradation.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES

The Livingstone Letters

New York, Sept 2 — John Livingstone, brother of Dr. Livingstone, who has been interviewed at [illegible], Canada, by a correspondent as to the genuineness of Livingstone's letters, states that when he first read them he had no doubt that the letter he received was in his brother's own handwriting. He explained the presence of Yankee expressions in his letter by the fact that the great explorer was fond of indulging in humorous and quaint [illegible]

Murders

Chicago, Sept 2 — On Clara street yesterday John Paterson was fatally shot by Ida Hurley in a quarrel about a disreputable woman.

A farmer named Scott, living near the Road [illegible], Illinois, was found dead in a field with a bullet hole through his brain on Saturday night. The murderers are unknown.

From Louisville

A special dispatch from Louisville indicates that the Straight Democratic Convention will have a fair attendance.

Loss of Life on the Bienville and Metis

New York, Sept 2 — A complete list of the passengers of the Bienville shows sixty two, which with the crew would make about ninety two persons on board. Of this number there are thirty six who took one of the boats which is still to be heard from. Seven were drowned when one of the boats capsized on leaving the vessel. It is hoped that the thirty six in the boat have been saved, as there has been but little wind and a slight sea, and the boat is adrift in one of the great highways of commerce, where it is likely that it will be picked up.

A Stonington dispatch says that one hundred were saved from the wreck of the Metis. Twenty five are known to be dead and 21 missing.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

Man Drowned—Another Wounded—Frazer River to be Improved

Victoria, Sept 2 — A man named Edward Hooker, while attempting to pull a boat through the rapids at the gorge yesterday afternoon, was carried out and drowned. Up to a late hour last night the body had not been recovered.

A young man named John Dunstan, while out hunting on Saturday, had his left hand badly shattered by the gun bursting.

Work will be commenced to-morrow on the Fraser river and the channel will be surveyed and sounded from the mouth over the sand heads. The buoys will all be raised, painted and replaced. The work will last three weeks.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

The Hamburg schooner Sea Sen, from Japan, arrived at San Francisco yesterday.

Rain storms which have destroyed much property are reported in Southern Utah.

Receipts of silver bullion from the Pioche mines now amount to $25,000 per day.

Some ruffian shot an inoffensive Chinaman at Healdsburg, Cal, on last Sunday evening.

The San Francisco mint is now turning out silver $1 pieces for the first time since 1859.

The winter is setting in at Salt Lake city, it seems. Ice half an inch thick formed at night.

At McClellan's reception in San Francisco, he said it was too late to change the decision at Baltimore.

The hostile Indians have all left San Pete Valley and the troops are returning to their head quarters.

J M Gretchell, the new Register in Bankruptcy for San Francisco, has assumed the duties of his office.

The new U S Branch Mint building at San Francisco will be ready for occupation on the 1st of July 1873.

The California Academy of Science met Monday afternoon in San Francisco to welcome the renowned Agassiz.

The Democracy of California gave Gen McClellan a reception on Monday night. The attendance was large.

Healdsburg, Cal, had a $500 fire on the afternoon of the 2d inst, and shortly afterward a refreshing thunder shower.

Mrs Fair's case will come up for another trial in San Francisco next week. Four hundred persons have been summoned.

The Santa Clara, Cal, agricultural exhibition opened on the 2d inst with several horse races. The prospects of a fine exhibition were good.

A Gentile Hotel, the finest between San Francisco and Chicago, was opened with grand festivities at Salt Lake city on Tuesday the 24 inst.

Forty two sail vessels entered the port of San Francisco last Sunday. The greatest part of them were lumber vessels, ships and barks of the larger class.

A man named Schmidthouse threw a stone at another named Jordan at Uniontown, Cal, on the 2d inst, and broke his skull, from which he died soon after.

Prof Gilman, President of the California State University, and Prof Torey, of Washington, made speeches at the Agassiz reception in San Francisco.

The matter of perpetuating testimony in regard to the alleged frauds in the Southern Pacific Railroad subsidy election in 1870 is now pending in the San Francisco courts.

The friends of the Los Angeles and San Diego Railroad are now working for a subsidy to aid in carrying the project through. Col Tom Scott has promised conditional aid.

A Los Angeles policeman shot and dangerously wounded Richard Stillwell, whom he was trying to arrest on the 1st inst. The policeman was arrested and put under $2,000 bonds.

Last Sunday night at San Francisco Louis Ballan discovered a burglar going through his house and tried to arrest him. While he was doing so the burglar shot Ballan through his wrist and fled.

The French bark [illegible], from Central America, and the English bark [illegible], from Yokohama, laden with merchandise and consigned to Macondray & Co, arrived at San Francisco on the 2d inst.

Mrs Capt Brown, so extensively noticed in our Sunday's dispatches from San Francisco, was once a saloon keeper in that city. She was a fellow passenger to this coast with Matilda Herron many years ago.

Professor Agassiz was warmly welcomed in San Francisco, and made a speech eulogizing the Golden State and saying much else in praise of American institutions for the advancement of the arts and sciences.

More diamond companies have organized in San Francisco, capital of each $10,000,000. A picked company of 20 men started for the diamond fields on Saturday of last week. They went on the sly, as they did not wish to be followed.

A Miss Lindenbauer was married at San Francisco on Sunday evening to officer Michaels of the police. During the nuptial festivities, while a large crowd was present, the house caught fire and was badly damaged. The party broke up very suddenly.

From every fashionable summer resort the cry comes that there has been during this season an alarming lack of marriageable young men. Long Branch, Newport, Saratoga, all tell the same story. Signs of the great want were to be seen last year, but never did they appear so prominently as now. Judged by weddings to come, the season has been a wretched failure. Ten to one is the proportion of young ladies to young gentlemen, and of course nine tenths of the former are disgusted. The wedding announcements are far behind the usual number. Speaking of this condition of affairs a correspondent writes: "Young men who contemplate marriage, look with fear upon these marriageable young women at watering places who wear every day dresses and finery sufficient to bankrupt any young man just starting in the world. It is not surprising at all that there are so many spinsters, for it is not every man of business who can afford to buy a gilded cage for such birds of Paradise."

POLITICAL NOTES

Gen Franz Sigel is about to take the stump in Indiana for the Republican cause in reply to Schurz.

A Democratic club organized at Atlanta, Ga, in opposition to the Greeley movement numbers 100 members and is still growing.

Sangamon county, Ill, reports fifteen Republicans who have gone over to Greeley and four hundred Democrats who have declared against him.

Mr Fred Douglass has been making merry down in Maine over the new found punctilious ness of the Democracy toward the colored race, as represented by himself.

What Sumner said of Garrison in the Senate June 1 1860: "A citizen purest life and perfect integrity, whose name is destined to fill a conspicuous place in the history of freedom."

Is not the colored man nearly right who, after reading Senator Sumner's letter very carefully, came to the conclusion that "his hatred of the President is stronger than his love for the negro"?

Under Buchanan the mail service cost the country $24 per mile. Under Grant it costs $6. Here is a campaign document more powerful with the people than columns of vaporing rhetoric.

A pious old Methodist thinks there is just a mite of injustice in God's dealing. He says: "To think of Ananias being struck dead for doing what Greeley editors are doing every day is rather hard!"

Horace Greeley in 1860 called the Irish and German emigrants "carpetbaggers from Cork, Limerick and Saur Krauthental," and that they were as deficient in mental and moral cultivation as they were in property.

Greeley and Sumner declare themselves "as good Republicans as ever." This is as if during the war a deserter from the Union to the rebel army had said: "I am just as true to the Union now as before I deserted."

Horace Greeley's opinion of Mr Farnsworth expressed after one of Mr Farnsworth's bouts with Butler in 1870-71: "Mr Farnsworth has forgotten that he has a district of decent men behind him, in which he has already reduced to little or nothing the largest Congressional majority in the country."

The Indianapolis Sentinel, the leading Democratic organ in Indiana, has expressed the following opinion of the Missouri Senator: "Carl Schurz is a mercenary Hessian willing to fight on any side for pay." The charge which Schurz makes for delivering his speech to an Indiana audience is two hundred dollars.

Over one hundred Democrats of Elmira have signed the call for a meeting to organize a straight out Democratic Club. And there are enough such almost everywhere to prevent their feeling lonely. The Syracuse Journal says that in that city the open revolt in the Democratic ranks is more than sufficient to make good all losses to the Republican cause.

Hon Moses M Strong, a Wisconsin Democrat of acknowledged ability, is stumping it for Greeley. It is reported that he talks to his audience to the following effect: "I don't like Greeley, and probably I never will. Greeley is an anomaly. No one can tell what his administration will be. Nevertheless I support Greeley in preference to Grant, although I would support almost any other man living in preference to Greeley."

The New York World makes the following humiliating confession: "We will frankly admit that we ourselves, although supporting Mr. Greeley, should be unwilling to submit the financial policy of the country to his uncontrolled personal guidance. We have been strenuously combating his economic notions ever since we came into the arena of journalism, and it would be absurd for us to profess implicit faith in his financial wisdom, when in fact we have no faith in it whatever, and never had."

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS

Mrs Victoria Demosthenes Woodhull, disgusted with her Presidential prospects, has gone off to England in a huff. The English people are to be commiserated.

A man and his four boys were lately capsized on a barge near Wheeling, Western Virginia, and the father kept his four sons up until they were rescued and then fell back and was drowned.

Now it begins to come out that those Arizona diamonds are "brilliant crystals resembling diamonds." Yes, we presume they would make a very good material to pave garden walks with or line a fountain basin.

Jonathan James, nearly eighty years of age, of Hudson, Maine, having been troubled with a peculiar and embarrassing cough for twenty years, coughed up a perfect frog the other night, and made himself permanently relieved.

The "iron famine" now prevailing in the world, especially in our country, has brought out the fact that to keep our railroad tracks in repair and iron for new roads, requires fully one half of all the iron production. The United States has now 65,000 miles of completed road.

The Augusta (Me.) Kennebec Journal indorses the statement of its shipping exchanges, that at no time during the past ten years has there been so much energy displayed as now in the building of wooden vessels, and adds that the shipyards of Maine have shown new life this season. The ring of the axe is heard in them as before the rebellion. Some of the large ship building places, like Bath, have experienced the revival of business in a larger degree than smaller places, but all along the shore the influence of a favorable change is felt.

The Cincinnati Gazette figures up about 1,000 persons who are privileged to hail the Greeley candidate for Vice President as "cousin Gratz." There are Browns, Smiths, Breckinridges, Howards, Blairs, and Marshals. The Smiths and Browns would be enough to fill the fattest offices.

On the bills announcing the races to come off over the Agricultural Park Course in San Francisco there is entered for the race a horse named "Horace Greeley, formerly Copperhead." As we read the announcement we were impressed with the force of the incident. Yes, there is entered for the national race the "Horace Greeley party, formerly Copperhead," and the old man who has lent his name as a cloak for the party, will go down to the grave in shame for this act of his old age.

FALSE WAYS —A pedagogue in Indiana who was "had up" for unmercifully welting the back of a little girl, justified his action by explaining that "she persisted in flinging paper pellets at him when his back was turned." That is no excuse. The town crier once taught school up in the mountains, and about every half hour had to remove his coat and scrape off the dried wads adhering to the nap. He never permitted a trifle like this to unsettle his patience, but he kept on wearing that gaberdine until it had no nap and the wads wouldn't stick. But when they took to dipping them in mucilage he made a complaint to the board of directors.

"Young man," said the chairman, "if you don't like our ways you'd better sling your blankets and git. Peter Mulford taught skule ver for mor n six months and he never said a word agin the wads."

The town crier briefly explained that Mr Peter Mulford might have been brought up to paper wads and didn't mind them.

"Hain't no use," said another director, "for the children have got to be amused."

The town crier protested that there were other amusements quite as diverting, but the third director here arose and remarked:

"I perfectly agree with the cheer this youngster d better travel. I consider as paper wads lies at the root uv popular edyercation, her a necessary adjunct uv the skule system. Mr Cheerman, I move and second it that this yer schoolmaster be shot."

The town crier did not wait to observe the result of the voting.

A man named Cricket, charged with horse stealing, has been held to answer before the grand jury of Jackson county. He is supposed to be [illegible] who have infested that section of of the country for some time past.

A Capital Speech

Among the best of the notable speeches of the campaign is one delivered at Utica (N Y) a few days ago by Henry L Dawes of Massachusetts. The speech opened with the remark that the nomination of Greeley by the Democratic party, if it were done sincerely, was a confession that the work of the Republican party since its organization has been grand and noble. For Greeley has been a leader in the work of that party, and by accepting him Democrats are estopped from saying aught against its achievements. Proceeding to consider what the question is now, Mr Dawes said:

The New York World says the question to be decided is whether we shall have Grant for President, with a Republican Cabinet, or whether we shall have Greeley and a Democratic Cabinet, and Democratic Congress. Sumner says that through disorganization alone can new life and new hope be infused into the Republican party. George W Julian says that the Democratic party itself is dead, and he said that before he had heard the news from North Carolina. Raphael Semmes, who destroyed our commerce during the rebellion, stated recently that Greeley had come over to him, and that he had not gone over to Greeley. He said: "I embrace Mr Greeley on my own deck." Carl Schurz said that the Cincinnati Convention would bring new life to the Republican party, and that with it would commence a new and glorious era. A candid Democrat, in your own State of New York, said to me the other day that his party had adopted Mr Greeley because they could use him as they pleased.

Out of it all comes no intelligent answer to the question, what is it these men demand, except it be the issue so plain to our minds, that it seems better to cover up than to uncover. In a speech made by a prominent Democrat in this State, a few days ago, the speaker said that there was an understanding with Mr Greeley that the prominent men of the Democratic party, such as General Breckenridge, are to come to the front and participate in and control public affairs.

Fellow-citizens, is it worth the while to deal with a question like this in such a way? Is it not plain that if the statements on both sides are sincere, one side is to be cheated, if not both? Is it not to illustrate what the poet said, that there is more pleasure in being cheated than in cheating? What is the truth of this whole matter? Do these parties expect that anything can result from their action without consolidation? There can be no such political action of parties together without consolidation and amalgamation. If they do not pull in opposite directions they will come man and man together. There is no escape from it, and they know it. Suppose these people are honest, and suppose that they succeed, and suppose they bring into prominent position the men who are now promised positions.

Concerning the alleged sudden conversion of the whole Democratic party, Mr. Dawes makes these points:

The Democratic party swallows the Republican declaration of principles. It was urged to this conclusion by some strong force. What dictated the Baltimore nomination? What all of a sudden produced the wonderful work—this instantaneous conversion? I have read of instantaneous conversions. I have read of 5,000 men being converted in a single day, but 5,000 is not enough. Fellow-citizens, the day of Pentecost was not a Democratic National Convention. [Applause.] The strong power which worked this revival was the Southern overruling the Northern element of the Democratic party. There were strong protests against this overruling. There were Bayard, of Delaware, and Stockton, of New Jersey. They opposed it with all strength. So did all the leading Northern Democrats. They could exist no longer; they yielded to the Southern element. What did the Southern Democrats see? What did they expect to gain by the Baltimore nominee? Was it because he was with them at the beginning, or was it because, later in the struggle, in the hours of darkness, he proposed terms of peace? Or was it still later, when he took by the hand the chief rebel of them all, and signed his bail bond? Senator Sumner tells the colored citizens to accept the bail bond at Baltimore. Why, except it be to follow out the line of policy long since adopted by Horace Greeley, and which is urged by the Southern Democracy, which dictates terms to the Northern? The organization of the Democratic party is controlled by the old element out of which came the war with its attendant horrors, burdens and sacrifices. Thus only in my mind can I work out the issue. It is the old issue, it can be no other. He who cries against the Republican party cries only from the Rebel standpoint. Take fair words, if you please, shut your eyes to the past, yet who can forbear to ask what security the man can give who asks you to take the promise of a rebel?

Of reconciliation and peace Mr Dawes said:

In regard to the complaint made against the Republican party, that it is not for reconciliation, the speaker asked who it was that took reconciliation for their watchword, and asked to shake hands over the bloody chasm? The men who had filled it with blood. Before reconciliation should come peace. They do not understand that. Four years ago when Gen Grant extended to them the hand of peace they refused it. From that hour to this, there has never been a time when they could not have reconciliation if they were willing to have peace first. Am I mistaken? Was there ever such a spectacle in the world as the treatment these rebels received at the hands of the Government under the Republican party? The world does not witness another such spectacle as eleven States in open rebellion, carrying on war for four years against the Government, and when at last compelled to lay down their arms, not one man ever required to expiate his treason upon the gallows. Why? because the policy of the Republican party from the beginning was reconciliation the moment we could have peace.

The Succedaneous Elector

Yesterday the Democratic State Central Committee in session at Portland nominated ex-Judge [illegible] Shattuck for the place on their electoral ticket made vacant by the decease of Hon L F Lane. This nomination is intended as a tub to throw to the Liberal whale But how large the tub is, how it can be deemed to supply the flavor of Republicanism needed to sweeten the Democracy and convert it into a Liberal Reform party is a mystery For Judge Shattuck has not for some years been recognized as a Republican So that the quantity of Republicanism injected into the party by this nomination is infinitesimally small It is therefore a very diminutive tub to throw to the Liberal whale but that [illegible] as he appears in Oregon is not a leviathan This vessel therefore will probably serve [illegible]

The new candidate for immolation on the altar of Democracy acquired a fair reputation as a Judge some years ago, which reputation, however he has by his recent political associations and efforts, somewhat obscured or considerably overdrawn By nature he is a critic, and is never satisfied with the thing that is He always wants something different. He cannot long be a member of any party, especially if that party be in power for he never sees the good there is in it and only discerns its blemishes and faults If the Greeley party should obtain the ascendant he would quit it in a year and he is satisfied with it now only because it has as yet had no opportunity to do anything that he can criticise or find fault with There are many men of this turn of mind But it should not be inferred that they have an ideal of party excellence which is very high They merely have theoretic notions and a captious disposition

But on an occasion of this sort it is best not to let one's remarks run into censure Judge Shattuck has passed away and it is best to remember the old injunction, De mortuis nil, etc

One of Nast's Cartoons

An article published in the Herald complains in a tone of affected indignation of a cartoon which recently appeared in Harper's Weekly In this illustration Senator Schurz is represented as seated at a piano. Through an open window is seen an ocean steamer flying the German flag, and under the window is the legend, plainly inscribed, 'Steamers to Germany nearly every day Passage cheap' Schurz says "I am disgusted with American politics " Uncle Sam replies, "Well, stranger, there ain't no law in this country that compels you to stay " According to the article in the Herald, this cartoon is a pictorial invitation to Senator Schurz to go back to Germany, if he don't like General Grant and an intimation that he and his countrymen are not wanted here any way Now this is a reckless and unscrupulous attempt to pervert the meaning of an admirable illustration The words of Senator Schurz, "I am disgusted with American politics " were spoken by him when Greeley was nominated He added, "I am overwhelmed and discouraged," and immediately after the Convention adjourned he retired to his private apartments, where some friends found him soothing his feelings by performing certain plaintive airs on the piano. Here is the point of this striking illustration The Senator might well be "disgusted with American politics" when such a result as the nomination of Greeley was possible in a "reform" Convention. The disgust was not towards Grant but toward Greeley, and this was the reason why the artist supposed the Senator might desire to take a trip to Germany.

Civil Service Reform with a Vengeance

Mr. Greeley recently made a speech at Portland, Maine, in the course of which he said

> In two or three instances I have been asked to say whether I would not, if elected, confine my appointments to Republicans I answer these by pointing to that plank of the Cincinnati platform wherein all who concur in the principles therein set forth are cordially invited to participate in their establishment and vindication * * * For my own part I recognize every honest man who approves and adheres to the Cincinnati platform as my political brother, and as such fully entitled to my confidence and friendly regard

On these utterances the New York Evening Post, an independent journal, makes these comments

> Here we have an explicit utterance from Mr Greeley on the subject of Civil Service Reform While 'the organ' and Messrs Schurz Trumbull & Co, are hypocritically proclaiming that their candidate is pledged to make honesty, efficiency and capacity the only test of fitness for office, Mr Greeley himself comes out and publicly announces that he will divide the offices solely among his supporters No man he says in substance who does not approve and adhere to the Cincinnati platform—and by adherence is meant, of course, support of Greeley—will be recognized as his political brother, or as entitled to his confidence and friendly regard Here we have the shameful hypocrisy of this so called "reform" movement unblushingly unveiled by its candidate for the Presidency Here is the civil service reform of Schurz and Trumbull Come on, supporters of Horace Greeley! Come up, Tammany Democracy! Come up Ku Klux Klans! Come up, Cincinnati brigade of soreheads! Your candidate is already ahead of you in earnest promise of early fulfilment of your wishes. Civil Service Reform!

Not many days ago a Greeley contemporary flew into a rage on learning that a Republican had remarked that the election of Greeley would be attended with danger to the country, and might lead to a heavy raid on the National Treasury by ex rebels who would demand indemnification for losses by the war Now Mr Greeley himself has placed on record his convictions that his Southern supporters 'consider themselves robbed by emancipation, and would like their property back again, or its value in some equivalent ' He has also said that ' they expect to regain as Democrats, through elections, the power they lost as rebels through war " It is well known that when Greeley was urging Lincoln to make peace by paying the Confederates four hundred million dollars for their slaves Grant's terms were unconditional surrender The prudent citizen can make his choice

The Statesman considers the editor of the Herald one of the most wonderful of men He reasons that because no record of Henry Wilson's Know Nothingism can be found therefore the proof is conclusive that Henry Wilson was a Know Nothing and that he or his friends have spirited the record away

The average annual expenditures of the Government for the last three years of President Grant's Administration are four hundred and sixty eight millions, three hundred and ninety nine thousand and nine hundred and twelve dollars less than those of the last three years of Johnson

During the present year the Northern Pacific Railroad Company have given orders to Pittsburg manufacturers for railroad material to the amount of $2 000 000

A Financial Policy

The Boston Journal thinks that Greeley's financial policy should any reverse of national fortune place him at the head of affairs would startle most business men For a long time his watchword in regard to specie payments has been 'the way to resume is to resume' a proposition eminently philosophic in expression but dangerous in realization It is likely that his first measure—after perhaps a general regulation of agriculture according to his theories—would be a forced resumption of specie payments which would result in a general unsettling of business affairs a change in standards of value and the ruin of thousands of business men Mr Greeley too has a theory of his own in regard to taxation and the payment of the national debt which cannot fail to be interesting to all moneyed men Mr Greeley said in June 1867

> We believe in taxing so as to pay the debt in ten years To do this the national revenue should be about $500 000 000 per annum, or the same as 1866 Had it been kept there we might have celebrated our country's centenary on the Fourth day of July 1876 completely out of debt And we hold that this might have been done by taxing with steady purpose to diminish the number of idlers or uselessly employed persons, and increase the proportion of productive workers, without prejudice to the national growth or prosperity Here, for example are a good many thousands of our people who have incomes of $10 000 to $1 000 000 per annum Suppose these were to pay ten per cent income tax, what of it? They will live less sumptuously or board less bounteously for a few years—that is all They will still enjoy every comfort and be growing richer, if they choose

All men who are in favor of an income tax of ten per cent are requested to step right up and cast their votes for Horace Greeley Don't crowd around the polls!

THE EFFECT.

In spite of my love for the Republican party, which I helped to create [see above figures], and for the many personal and political friends who still cling to its organization and support its nominee, some of whom are upon your State ticket, I cannot persuade myself to accept the invitation of the committee and labor for the re-election of President Grant —John F Farnsworth, 1872

From time to time there has been discussion on various subjects on which legislation will probably be asked at the coming session The points discussed have related chiefly to amendment of the road and school laws, to a better and more thorough act for the assessment, equalization and collection of taxes, to an enactment of mechanics' lien law, to an amendment of the act regulating the sale of liquors, and to the furtherance of various schemes of internal improvement On many of these topics persons are understood to be preparing bills for presentation to the Legislature

A letter published in the New York Tribune assumes to give the following information regarding the intention of Republicans in that State

> The nomination of Dix for Governor was the result of a bargain by which Thurlow Weed and Seward are to revenge their old quarrel with Greeley and Weed and Seward are again to become a power in the State of New York Conkling is to be thrown overboard and Governor Morgan is to be elected Senator—the Legislature to be carried for this purpose

It is understood that at the meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee yesterday crow was eaten in silence No thanks were returned and no protests made The disagreeable report was swallowed as soon as possible and members adjourned for something to wash it down

The production of petroleum in the Pennsylvania oil regions shows no abatement The quantity produced in July was 24 679 000 gal gallons an increase of 40 000 gallons over the previous month The old wells show an increased flow and new ones are being discovered

French vs English Gallantry

In comparison with the rude covering with which the Briton clothes his acts the pliant grace and kindly solicitude of the Gaul in presence of his fellow men compel admiration Yet if one could read the heart of this Briton it would perhaps be found that his sentiments of humanity are deeper than those of his neighbor The rudest husk sometimes covers the sweetest kernal When the Gaul performs a gallant act he extracts all the honey that is to be gotten out of it If he gives up his seat to a woman—which by the way he does not often do—he takes off his hat and points to the vacant place as it he were surrendering an empire and inviting a queen to enthrone herself thereon If he hoists his umbrella it is as if he were spreading out the canopy of heaven over her head If he picks up a fallen glove he offers it to the owner as if were placing his sword and honor at his disposal for the rest of his life If he quits at the foot of a stairway he looks after her as a chamberlain of the court might do when her Majesty mounts the throne And in each instance the woman meets him half way in grace and affability All this makes him happy The consciousness of having conducted himself as a chevalier without reproach the probability of having produced an impression on the heart of her whom he has thus encountered and the recollection of her enticing manner, bring ripples of pleasure across his mind whenever the scene recurs to him —'The French' H [illegible] for September

OREGON M E CONFERENCE

[illegible]

Conference convened at 9 A M Bishop Foster presiding Prayer by H Caldwell Journal of the previous day read and approved H Caldwell was granted leave of absence

Joseph Hoberg Chairman of the Committee on Sunday school statistics reported the collections for the Sunday School Union during the past year amounting to $90 only

Dr Nelson chief agent of the Book Concern at New York was then introduced to the Conference and made a few brief and happy remarks

The Chairman of the Temperance Committee W H Miesse, submitted the following report with sadness and much solicitude for all the interests of our beloved land

We are forced to admit the onward march of intemperance, and the increased destruction occasioned by the wine cup Throughout the entire length and breadth of the State and Territory there are manifestations of its work of death Within the State there are 80 000 gallons of distilled spirits and 27 breweries whose sales annually amount to 212 100 gallons In the city of Portland there are 151 dealers in strong drink, and their numbers are increasing Of the 800 arrests in the city of Portland during the last year 700 were the result of alcoholic drinks

Intemperance is filling our jails and alms houses is clogging the wheels of agriculture science and religion, and is damning the souls of thousands for time and eternity, and from the midst of this volcano of destruction, we hear the plaintive entreaty of the houseless and broken hearted for the exertion of our united energies to stay the work of misery and death therefore be it

Resolved, 1st That we will pledge ourselves to an unceasing warfare against this giant evil as long as a saloon shall be open or a victim unsaved

2d That we will use our influence in all places and at all times for the suppression of the traffic, and against the use of fermented cider and wine as well as malt and distilled liquors in the social circle as well as in the saloon

3d That as ministers of the pure word of God we will use diligence to secure strictly temperance men to office

4th That we send hearty greetings to all true temperance men and temperance Orders and promise them our hearty support in the work in which they are engaged

5th That we will secure the unfermented juice of the grape so far as practicable for sacramental purposes

The above resolutions were unanimously adopted

The names of N Rounds, J W Turner C Smith J L Parrish, and G W Roork were called characters passed and continued as supernumerary

J W York, J Spencer and Wm Helm characters passed and continued in a superannuated relation

Revs Sears and Lovell of the M E Church South were introduced to the Conference and invited to seats within the bar

The following resolution was adopted,

Resolved, That this evening be set apart as a general Temperance Rally for the members of this Conference, and that the public be invited to attend

Jos, Hoberg, I D Driver and W H Meisse were appointed to arrange a programme and make announcements

The Bible report was again presented The resolutions were read and adopted and on the motion to adopt as a whole, Rev I D Driver, Agent of the American Bible Society, addressed the Conference, giving an interesting account of his own and the labors of his colporteurs during the year The report was adopted—too lengthy for publication

Those holding moneys for the Women's Foreign Missionary Society were directed to turn them over to J W Miller, the Treasurer of the Society

L T Woodward, G W Izer, D L Spaulding, A. C Fairchilds, C Alderson and J H Adams were appointed a Committee to nominate officers for the Missionary and Sunday School Societies

Adjourned until 3 o'clock P M

A vast amount of business is being transacted by the Conference through its various committees, the results of which have not been presented Many reports are presented too lengthy for publication, of which only a mere notice has been given The session so far has been harmonious and pleasant It is thought the Conference will adjourn tomorrow (Tuesday) at noon

Blanton Duncan Interviewed

A New York dispatch of the 23d of August says that Blanton Duncan has been interviewed by the anxious Greeleyites, and he says

The country is alive with the subject, and names are pouring in here every day by the bushel Every State in the Union, except Oregon, Nevada, New Hampshire, Vermont, and Rhode Island, has responded to the circular, and some of them will send tremendous delegations They will be the biggest and most enthusiastic convention that has ever been held in this country You will find it so See here the letters that have come to day, fully half a bushel of them

The interviewer says Duncan showed me a book wherein he had inserted the names of all who had written to him in favor of a straight out nomination. It was a formidable and I must say a surprising list He had them divided off in States Texas seemed to take the lead then New York Indiana Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky, Georgia Minnesota, Wisconsin and others followed, the ones named having the longest lists in the letters There seems to be a vein of doubt and timidity and the question, Will there be a convention? was often added There is a deal of discontent and disruption after all and the silent undercurrent that has been talked of is no myth It is a dangerous discontent that these letters breathe it is ominous and numerous enough to justify and encourage the straight leaders There are many hearty letters from the South Duncan said in conclusion, 'We are strong enough already to make the movement a success, and our policy is to take the country by storm and sweep it with a whirlwind of enthusiasm We are hampered now by want of a press The Democratic organs have all gone over to Greeley, but after the convention campaign papers will spring up all over the country I have already received advices of campaign papers being started in different sections, and they say that if we make good nominations they will promulgate ideas and speak the wish of the people and will prove a powerful and crushing foe to the Democratic press that has sold itself for pottage Some of the papers have begun to see it and are beginning to tone down already

The German Empire

(From the N Y Evening Mail)

The imperial government of Germany has to contend with more difficulties than people generally believe Not only has it to watch incessantly its French adversaries to make all sorts of concessions both to Austria and Russia in order to remain on friendly terms with those two powers and to fight its powerful Ultramontane opponents but it is also constantly hampered and badgered by the ill will and intrigues of some of the Governments of the petty German States Quite recently the Bavarian government, to which important prerogatives were granted upon its accession to the German Empire has shown so hostile a disposition toward the imperial government that an exchange of angry notes has taken place between Berlin and Munich which is said to have so exasperated King Louis the Second of Bavaria that he treated the Emperor William during his recent brief sojourn in that country with positive discourtesy Among Bismarck's principal grievances against the Bavarian government is that availing itself of its special prerogative it caused its military forces to be armed with rifles widely different from the Prussian needle guns and that according to the opinion of so great an authority on the subject as Field Marshal Moltke it has thereby materially impaired the homogeneous character of the forces of the German empire Bismarck has even threatened to lay before the Federal Council a proposition depriving Bavaria of the special privileges granted to it in 1870 [illegible] from being intimidated by this menace the [illegible] of Munich [illegible] to the great Chancellor

This [illegible] Bavaria cannot [illegible] be [illegible] unpleasant at the present juncture to the German government, is just now in view of the impending meeting of the three Emperors at Berlin [illegible] of the highest importance for it to appear before the world as perfectly masters of the situation in Germany Undoubtedly French and Austrian intrigues are at the bottom of these manifestations of Bavarian hostility toward the Empire and the Ultramontanes it is quite certain have left nothing undone to prejudice the young King against the old Emperor and to excite his jealousies of what they call Bismarck's centralizing tendencies which their organs constantly predict will lead at no distant day to the annexation of Bavaria to Prussia

It may be that in case the Bavarian Government should persist in its present attitude toward the Imperial Government Bismarck will urge the Emperor to adopt a more energetic policy toward it He will certainly insist upon Bavaria's relinquishing the exceptional privileges granted to it upon her joining the Empire and this may bring about a serious crisis that might lead to important changes in Germany At any rate the internal condition of the new Empire is not as satisfactory as it would seem to superficial observers There are germs of grave conflicts in the near future and it will require all of Bismarck's skill firmness and courage to steer the ship of state through the threatening breakers

OREGON

Fishing with giant powder is becoming common in Jackson county

Wm Phipps of North Yamhill harvested 420 bushels of wheat off a ten acre field

The Jacksonville Times has again changed proprietors Mr T B Kent is now sole owner

The citizens of Link river settlement have a fine race course upon which to try the speed of their Cayuses

The potato crop in Yamhill promises well, and the price is coming down towards 25 cents a bushel, so says the Courier.

Roseburg aspires to be a city and articles of incorporation have been prepared and will be submitted to the Legislature at the coming session

R R Cochran and C B Chrisman are urging the Democrats of Jackson county to eat 'biled crow Otherwise, they are making Greeley speeches

J R Neil, Prosecuting Attorney of the First Judicial District, gives notice through the columns of the Jacksonville Sentinel that he will enforce the Sunday law

A fine team of two horses belonging to Mr Aaron Rose, of Roseburg ran away at that place last week Coming to the river they did not stop but plunged in and were drowned

The friends of the Wallamet University must have made a grand rally at Salem on yesterday afternoon, as a dispatch from that place informs us that $20 000 were raised in aid of that institution.

An Indian at the Klamath Reservation shot and killed his squaw on the 22d inst and through fear of being strung up fled to Klamath Lake where he sensibly signed his own death warrant with a gun

The Roseburg Plaindealer urges the institution of a separate Supreme Court in Oregon and says it is a shame that the judges who have worked unceasingly on the circuit for nearly a twelvemonth on a salary of two thousand dollars a year, should be compelled to sit in bank to review every important case decided in the State

The Courier says business is rather dull in Lafayette in consequence of the dead lull in the wheat market It seems that there is no one to start a figure in any wise remunerative to the producer except L G Walter of the Lafayette Mills who pays an advance of ten cents, we understand, upon the ruling rates There is money in town from below to buy wheat, but the figures offered are quite below what the generality of our farmers expect to realize

THE TERRITORIES

Olympia hotels are crowded

Mason county, W T, is to have a new court house

Oneida county, Idaho, in which the famed Soda Springs are situated has a population of 4 1[illegible]

Bishop Randall, of Colorado has recently made a tour of 1,200 miles over a small part of his diocese

A considerable trade in walrus tusks has sprung up with Alaska These tusks are used as ivory by cutlers

Col C H Larrabee formerly proprietor of the Seattle Dispatch printing office has just sold out his interest to Beriah Brown and brother

A correspondent of the Olympia Transcript says that Mr S Baxter on Lummi Island, W T has twelve head of thoroughbred Cotswold sheep brought from Yorkshire, England which are believed to be the finest on the coast His fine buck "North Pacific" cost $250 in England and weighs 350 pounds and shears 10 pounds of wool on an average

A correspondent of the Alaska Herald writing from the Shumagin Islands, says There has been a great deal of rough weather among the Shumagin Islands during the summer The strong south and southeasterly winds are the most severe here The storms brought by these winds are not unfrequent, and compel vessels to leave their anchorage for sea The atmosphere is thick with fogs and the rains are constant and heavy during these winds The sun is seldom seen and for the past three months has appeared only twice You may rest assured that when we do see the divine light of heaven as the poet has it the heart goes out in thanks for his small favor granted A good sun bath is a luxury we do not often indulge in and which can only be properly appreciated by people in our situation

ESDAY MORNING SEPTEMBER 3 1872

DE[illegible] — [illegible] de[illegible] ing o several days pa[illegible] [illegible] ing nary [illegible] conflicting opinions [illegible] entertained [illegible] such [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and n a pulse does n[illegible] beat w th that [illegible] and buoyancy [illegible] weeks ba[illegible] Boreas and Pluvius mythol g [illegible] have contributed in no mean proportion [illegible] about the present condition of affairs In [illegible] the hermomet[er] [illegible] these two fellows has w [illegible] has given up he unequal contest and is evincing a strong [illegible] nation to go d wn in his boots From seventy he dropped to even be ow fifty yesterday Cold wind and streaks of stray sunshine prevailed with such irregularity that Mercury was [illegible] at once and went first up and then down, as if he had lost his former constancy of character Indications at present promise a grateful shower of rain which would be pronounced a Godsend by his very thirsty people The predicted comet collision failed to connect miscalculated or [illegible] arr ed and the thermometer is yet unable to determine whether it is to be rain smoke or sunshine, [illegible] his kind of foolishness can t last forever

FULL DOCKET —A very full docket was disposed of yesterday morning in the Police Court There were seventeen State and city cases It would be a fine study for a phrenologist to have seen the various faces and forms ranged along the "anxious seat" The three leading races each had its representative—the Caucasian American and Asiatic Here could be seen John with his almond orbs and one there Lo with his snaky locks and low retreating forehead, there again the Anglo Saxon, with his unkempt hair ragged clothes and debauched features on which were stamped in indelible characters the impress of a life principally devoted to the twin vices of the age—Bacchus and women There were as many different expressions lingering about the faces of each as the features of one was dissimilar from its fellow Some looked a keen concern for the result others looked hardened and shameless and others again manifested a stolid indifference indicating a degree of depravity beyond the reach of morality or reformation. A visit to the Police Court cannot but impress one with the feeling that "more missionaries" are needed in this city

SUNDAY BURGLARIES —In view of the fact that burglars are no respecters of the Sabbath, and will enter houses on that day and steal, the same as on other days it would be well for church goers to leave some member of the family behind to keep watch and ward Burglars generally prefer to enter premises during the absence of the family at church, to perform their labor of relieving a household of sundry little articles, than at any other time. During such absence, they are less liable to be interrupted than during the night, when all the members of a family are wrapt in slumber Houses are entered every Sabbath in this city while the folks are at church In broad daylight, too, and articles of value stolen Last Sunday the residence of Mr Heroy, who lives near St. Helen's Hall, was entered about noon and a small sum of money taken and also some articles of trifling value. We do not know how it is elsewhere, but Portland thieves do not yield much to the sacred influences of the Sabbath The sound of the "church going bell" is a signal for them to start forth on their predatory excursions

STRONGLY CAST —From the manner in which the tragedy of Macbeth—the opening piece at Oro Fino Theater Saturday evening—will be cast by the company soon to make their appearance we feel warranted in the assertion that this great play will be produced in a manner never surpassed or even equalled, by any other troupe that has yet appeared before a Portland audience The leading title roles will be assumed by Mrs C F Stewart and Geo. B Waldron the former as Lady Macbeth and the latter as Macbeth The leading [illegible] will be supported by a stronger stock company than has ever before been in this city, assisted by new scenery, properties, accessories and mechanical effects Manager Waldron has expended a large sum of money in procuring such histrionic talent, and the public will no doubt appreciate his efforts to sustain the legitimate drama and liberally patronize the theater

MORE TRACES.—Subsequent examination of the [illegible] below the new saw mill which is supposed [illegible] of the murder of Boves, has re[illegible] the officers with more traces of the tragedy [illegible] distance from the bank of the river, [illegible] the point where the remains were found [illegible], there is a trail leading to the water's edge, as if a body, similar to that of a man, has been dragged The passage of the weight over the sand before the body is reached, has produced a mark several inches deep, and from appear[ances] [illegible] must have been caused by the body of the [murder]ed man Boves had evidently been stabbed some distance from the edge of the water and dragged forward and thrown into the river for concealment.

FAST RIDING —Two young men were up before Judge Denny yesterday on a charge of fast riding On examination it was proven that these young men instead of conforming to the prescribed gait of six miles per hour, were moving at a rate not far short of fifteen miles in the same time. The Court fined each defendant $5 and costs This is the first instance of an arrest for some time on a charge of rapid driving As the law is violated most every day we hope to hear of arrests whenever and wherever the law is violated. A move has been made in the right direction and more examples should be made until drivers keep the fear of the law before their eyes.

THEATRICAL —To-morrow morning Charles Vivian, Ed Montague, M'llles Gaugain and Gabrielle, will leave the city for Vancouver under the management of Mr G B Waldron A general variety performance will be given at that place Wednesday evening The company will then leave for the Dalles, at which place performances will be given on Thursday and Friday evenings From the Dalles the troupe will proceed to Walla Walla and exhibit there on Monday night It is not yet determined whether the company will return to Portland from that point or proceed overland through to Salt Lake

ASSEMBLY ROOM —The new building attached to the Insane Asylum near East Portland, and [illegible] the Assembly Room has been completed and is now being used for the purpose for which it was erected The room is to be used as a chapel where services will be held on Sundays and as a place where the inmates can amuse [them]selves and recreate during the week days A variety of games dancing etc will be introduced, when the unfortunates can divert themselves in many ways and take the requisite exercise to promote good health

CLEANING OUT —In view of the intended visit to Albany on the 12th inst by the members of Willamette Engine Co No 1 the fire engine is now undergoing a thorough cleaning out Some repairs are also being made The machine will be placed in the best possible condition to throw water This is especially desirable on the part of the members of Willamette No 1 as there will be a contest between the respective companies to determine the question as to which can throw the highest stream

CAPTURED —The special officer who was detailed to capture the Indian, Narcisse one of the supposed murderers of Boves returned last evening from the Dalles He found Narcisse near that place among some Indians and signified a desire to have Lo accompany him to this city Narcisse complied with the request as he was not in a very good condition to decline the honor Both Jim and Narcisse are now confined in the city jail and will have a preliminary examination this morning.

STREET CARS —We are informed that a party who went East some time since to make [arran]gements to procure several street cars to be run through the city in several directions, under the management of a Company organized over a year ago is soon expected to return to Portland It is reported that he has accomplished the object of his visit If such is the case this city can boast of its street cars before another year shall have passed away

ALL THROUGH —The four remaining parties connected with the Yaquina affair—Butterfield McDonald Howard and Rourke—came into the U S District Court yesterday morning withdrew the former plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty to the Indictment Each was fined the sum of $50 and in default of payment were remanded to jail for the period of 25 days apiece or at the rate of two dollars per day until the liquidation of the fine

A NEW PARTNER —A new partner has been taken into the firm of Messrs Hawley Dodd & Co of this city by one of the partners as appears by a San Francisco telegram of the 2d inst which states that E A Hawley and wife of Portland arrived in that city overland from the East Edward we will smile with you [illegible] s welic

FINED —In the U S District Court yesterday the argument in the case of the United States vs John Lee was closed and the matter submitted to the jury A verdict of guilty was soon rendered against the defendant whereupon the Court proceeded to pass sentence by a fine of $100 [illegible] the defendant paid and was released from custody

CLOSED —The Twentieth Annual Convocation of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Oregon and Washington Territory closed its services Sunday evening with an effective sermon by the Bishop at Trinity Church This church [illegible] day was observed in a very profitable manner and attended with very interesting ceremonies

REMOVED —The scaffolding erected in Ladd's Bank during the time the interior of the counting room was being frescoed has been removed since the completion of the work The fresco has very materially enhanced the appearance of the bank ing room The interior presents the most handsome aspect of any business office in the city

MECHANICS' AND LABORERS LIEN LAW —Pursuant to notice heretofore given quite a large number of mechanics and laborers last evening met at the office of Caples & Moreland and discussed and agreed upon the general features of a mechanics' and laborers lien law, to be presented to the Legislature for enactment

TO ADJOURN —The M E Annual Conference which has been in session at Salem since last Thursday morning will adjourn to day A number of clergymen from different portions of the State may be expected to arrive in this city to day and to morrow en route for their various fields of labor.

NOT SO SMOKY —Persons from below inform us that there is comparatively but little smoke down the Columbia From the time the mouth of the Wallamet is entered until the city is reached, the smoke is very dense Persons can scarcely enjoy a full breath of pure air until they get down on the Columbia

FOREIGN MONEY ORDERS —Postmaster Wakefield has received information that the treaty with Germany for the issue of money orders between that country and the United States will be shortly consummated and that he expects to be able to issue money orders on Germany some time in October

DISCHARGED—PAID OFF —All the jurors in attendance on the term of the U S District Court were paid off yesterday by the U S Marshal and discharged, there being no further use for their services The numerous witnesses in the various cases were also paid their fees and allowed to depart

THREE MONTHS —"Spud" Murphy, for stealing numerous articles of clothing was arraigned before Judge Denny yesterday morning In view of the fact that the defendant was an old and frequent offender, the court sentenced him to the county jail for three months

TO BE DECIDED —The case of the United States vs Capt Patterson, of the bark Edward James, was examined before U S Commissioner Wilcox who took the matter under advisement A decision will be rendered in the case to day

NEW TERM —The term of the U S District Court, which has been in session for some weeks, closed yesterday, and the regular term of the U S Circuit Court commenced Judge S J Field will preside as soon as he arrives here

PROLIFIC —Sunday must have been a prolific day for rows as a number of cases of assault and battery were disposed of yesterday in the Police Court, and before the several Justices of the Peace in the city

PREACHING —The Oregon Conference, now in session at Salem, will adjourn to-day, and Bishop Foster will preach in the Taylor Street Church in this city this (Tuesday) evening at 7½ o'clock

TEMPERANCE —There will be a meeting of the members of the St James Temperance Society at the hall, Stark street, this evening All members in good standing are requested to attend

TO THE FRONT —Large quantities of railroad iron are now passing to the front on the west side road, from the two vessels unloading at this port—Navigator and Electra

A TUG BOAT —We understand that the steamer Mary Bell will not be used any longer on the lower Columbia as a passenger boat, but will be used only as a tug boat

LOW WATER MARK —The Columbia and Wallamet rivers are both falling very rapidly and from the present rate of recedence will soon reach low water mark

LADIES' RELIEF SOCIETY —The Ladies Relief Society will meet at the usual place to day (Tuesday) at 2 o clock

TUESDAY MORNING SEPTEMBER 3 1872

CITY.

DECLINE [illegible] had been growing rapidly during several days past [illegible] much exceeded opinions [illegible] pulse does [illegible] with that [illegible] and buoyancy [illegible] d Boreas and Pluvius mythologically speaking have contributed [illegible] mean proportion [illegible] about the present condition of affairs [illegible] the thermometer [illegible] these two fellows has weakened has given up the unequal contest and is evincing a strong inclination to go down in his boots From seventy he dropped to even below fifty yesterday Clouds wind and streaks of stray sunshine prevailed with such irregularity that Mercury was ill at ease and went first up and then down, as if he had lost his former constancy of character Indications at present promise a grateful shower of rain which would be pronounced a Godsend by this very thirsty people The predicted comet collision failed to connect miscalculated or miscarried and the thermometer is yet unable to determine whether it is to be rain smoke or sunshine, but this kind of foolishness can't last forever

FULL DOCKET —A very full docket was disposed of yesterday morning in the Police Court There were seventeen State and city cases It would be a fine study for a phrenologist to have seen the various faces and forms ranged along the "anxious seat" The three leading races each had its representative—the Caucasian American and Asiatic Here could be seen "John" with his almond orbs and cue, there Lo with his snaky locks and low retreating forehead there again, the Anglo Saxon with his unkempt hair, ragged clothes and debauched features on which were stamped in indelible characters the impress of a life principally devoted to the twin vices of the age—Bacchus and women There were as many different expressions lingering about the faces of each as the features of one was dissimilar from its fellow Some looked a keen concern for the result others looked hardened and shameless, and others again manifested a stolid indifference, indicating a degree of depravity beyond the reach of morality or reformation A visit to the Police Court cannot but impress one with the feeling that "more missionaries" are needed in this city

SUNDAY BURGLARIES —In view of the fact that burglars are no respecters of the Sabbath, and will enter houses on that day and steal, the same as on other days, it would be well for church goers to leave some member of the family behind to keep watch and ward Burglars generally prefer to enter premises during the absence of the family at church, to perform their labor of relieving a household of sundry little articles, than at any other time During such absence, they are less liable to be interrupted than during the night, when all the members of a family are wrapt in slumber. Houses are entered every Sabbath in this city while the folks are at church, in broad daylight, too, and articles of value stolen Last Sunday the residence of Mr Heroy who lives near St. Helen's Hall, was entered about noon and a small sum of money taken and also some articles of trifling value. We do not know how it is elsewhere, but Portland thieves do not yield much to the sacred influences of the Sabbath The sound of the "church going bell" is a signal for them to start forth on their predatory excursions

STRONGLY CAST —From the manner in which the tragedy of Macbeth—the opening piece at Oro Fino Theater Saturday evening—will be cast by the company soon to make their appearance we feel warranted in the assertion that this great play will be produced in a manner never surpassed or even equalled, by any other troupe that has yet appeared before a Portland audience The leading title roles will be assumed by Mrs C F Stewart and Geo B Waldron, the former as Lady Macbeth and the latter as Macbeth. The leading characters will be supported by a stronger stock company than has ever before been in this city, assisted by new scenery, properties, accessories and mechanical effects Manager Waldron has expended a large sum of money in procuring such histrionic talent, and the public will no doubt appreciate his efforts to sustain the legitimate drama and liberally patronize the theater

MORE TRACES —Subsequent examination of the [illegible] below the new saw mill which is supposed [illegible] scene of the murder of Boyce, has re[illegible] the officers with more traces of the tragedy [illegible] distance from the bank of the river, [illegible] the point where the remains were found [illegible], there is a trail leading to the water's edge, as if a body, similar to that of a man, has been dragged The passage of the weight over the sand before the body is reached, has produced a mark several inches deep, and from appearance must have been caused by the body of the murdered man Boyce had evidently been stabbed some distance from the edge of the water, and dragged forward and thrown into the river for it tealment

FAST RIDING —Two young men were up before Judge Denny yesterday on a charge of fast riding. On examination it was proven that these young men instead of conforming to the prescribed gait of six miles per hour, were moving at a rate not far short of fifteen miles in the same time The Court fined each defendant $5 and costs. This is the first instance of an arrest for some time on a charge of rapid driving As the law is violated almost every day, we hope to hear of arrests whenever and wherever the law is violated. A move has been made in the right direction and more examples should be made until drivers keep the fear of the law before their eyes.

THEATRICAL —To-morrow morning Charles Vivian, Ed Montague M'lles Gaugain and Gazetta, will leave the city for Vancouver under the management of Mr G B Waldron A grand variety performance will be given at that place Wednesday evening The company will then leave for the Dalles, at which place performances will be given on Thursday and Friday evenings. From the Dalles the troupe will proceed to Walla Walla and exhibit there on Monday night It is not yet determined whether the company will return to Portland from that point or proceed overland through to Salt Lake

ASSEMBLY ROOM —The new building attached to the Insane Asylum near East Portland and [illegible] the Assembly Room, has been completed and is now being used for the purpose for which it was erected The room is to be used as a chapel where services will be held on Sundays, and as a place where the inmates can amuse themselves and recreate during the week days A variety of games dancing, etc will be introduced, when the unfortunates can divert themselves in many ways and take the requisite exercise to promote good health

CLEANING OUT —In view of the intended visit to Albany on the 12th inst, by the members of Willamette Engine Co No 1 the fire engine is now undergoing a thorough cleaning out Some repairs are also being made The machine will be placed in the best possible condition to throw water This is especially desirable on the part of the members of Willamette No 1 as there will be a contest between the respective companies to determine the question as to which can throw the highest stream

CAPTURED —The special officer who was detailed to capture the Indian, Narcise one of the supposed murderers of Boyes, returned last evening from the Dalles. He found Narcise near that place among some Indians and signified a desire to have "Lo" accompany him to this city Narcise complied with the request as he was not in a very good condition to decline the honor Both Jim and Narcise are now confined in the city jail and will have a preliminary examination this [illegible].

STREET CARS — We are informed that a party who went East some time since to make [illegible] arrangements to procure several street cars to be run through the city in several directions, under the management of a Company incorporated over a year ago is soon expected to return to Portland It is reported that he has accomplished the object of his visit If such is the case, this city can boast of its street cars before another year shall have passed away

ALL THROUGH —The four remaining parties connected with the Yaquina affair—Butterfield McDonald Howard and Rourke—came into the U. S. District Court yesterday morning, withdrew the former plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty to the indictment Each was fined the sum of $50 and in default of payment were remanded to jail for the period of 25 days apiece or at the rate of two dollars per day until the liquidation of the fine.

A NEW PARTNER —A new partner has been taken into the firm of Messrs Hawley Dodd & Co of this city by one of the partners as appears by a San Francisco telegram of the 2d inst which states that E A Hawley and wife of Portland arrived in that city overland from the East Edward, we will [illegible] with you [illegible] well

FINED —In the U S District Court yesterday, the argument in the case of the United States vs John Lee was closed and the matter submitted to the jury A verdict of guilty was soon rendered against the defendant whereupon the Court proceeded to pass sentence by a fine of $100 The defendant paid and was released from custody

CLOSED —The Twentieth Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Oregon and Washington Territory closed its services Sunday evening with an effective sermon by the Bishop at Trinity Church This church birth day was observed in a very profitable manner and attended with very interesting ceremonies

REMOVED —The scaffolding erected in Ladd's Bank during the time the interior of the counting room was being frescoed has been removed since the completion of the work The fresco has very materially enhanced the appearance of the banking room The interior presents the most handsome aspect of any business office in the city

MECHANICS' AND LABORERS LIEN LAW —Pursuant to notice heretofore given, quite a large number of mechanics and laborers last evening met at the office of Caples & Moreland, and discussed and agreed upon the general features of a mechanics' and laborers' lien law to be presented to the Legislature for enactment

TO ADJOURN —The M E Annual Conference which has been in session at Salem since last Thursday morning, will adjourn to day A number of clergymen from different portions of the State may be expected to arrive in this city to day and to morrow en route for their various fields of labor.

NOT SO SMOKY —Persons from below inform us that there is comparatively but little smoke down the Columbia From the time the mouth of the Wallamet is entered until the city is reached the smoke is very dense Persons can scarcely enjoy a full breath of pure air until they get down on the Columbia

FOREIGN MONEY ORDERS —Postmaster Wakefield has received information that the treaty with Germany for the issue of money orders between that country and the United States will be shortly consummated and that he expects to be able to issue money orders on Germany some time in October

DISCHARGED—PAID OFF —All the jurors in attendance on the term of the U S District Court were paid off yesterday by the U S Marshal and discharged, there being no further use for their services The numerous witnesses in the various cases were also paid their fees and allowed to depart

THREE MONTHS —"Spud" Murphy, for stealing numerous articles of clothing was arraigned before Judge Denny yesterday morning In view of the fact that the defendant was an old and frequent offender, the court sentenced him to the county jail for three months

TO BE DECIDED —The case of the United States vs Capt Patterson, of the bark Edward James, was examined before U. S. Commissioner Wilcox, who took the matter under advisement A decision will be rendered in the case to day

NEW TERM —The term of the U S District Court which has been in session for some weeks closed yesterday, and the regular term of the U S Circuit Court commenced Judge S J Field will preside as soon as he arrives here

PROLIFIC —Sunday must have been a prolific day for rows, as a number of cases of assault and battery were disposed of yesterday in the Police Court, and before the several Justices of the Peace in the city

PREACHING —The Oregon Conference, now in session at Salem, will adjourn to-day, and Bishop Foster will preach in the Taylor Street Church in this city this (Tuesday) evening at 7½ o'clock

TEMPERANCE —There will be a meeting of the members of the St. James Temperance Society at the hall, Stark street, this evening. All members in good standing are requested to attend

TO THE FRONT —Large quantities of railroad iron are now passing to the front on the west side road, from the two vessels unloading at this port—Navigator and Electra

A TUG BOAT —We understand that the steamer Mary Bell will not be used any longer on the lower Columbia as a passenger boat, but will be used only as a tug boat

LOW WATER MARK —The Columbia and Wallamet rivers are both falling very rapidly, and from the present rate of recedence will soon reach low water mark

LADIES' RELIEF SOCIETY —The Ladies Relief Society will meet at the usual place to day (Tuesday) at 2 o'clock

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.--1860--X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 3, 1872.

CITY.

DECLINING.—Fahrenheit has been visibly declining for several days past. That imaginary personage does not entertain such exalted opinions as formerly, and his pulse does not beat with that youthful fervor and buoyancy that it did a few weeks back. Old Boreas and Pluvius, mythologically speaking, have contributed in no mean proportion to bring about the present condition of affairs. In fact the thermometer, from the incessant attacks of these two fellows, has weakened, has given up the unequal contest and is evincing a strong inclination to go down in his boots. From seventy he dropped to even below fifty yesterday. Clouds, wind and streaks of stray sunshine, prevailed with such irregularity that Mercury was ill at ease, and went first up and then down, as if he had lost his former constancy of character. Indications at present promise a grateful shower of rain, which would be pronounced a Godsend by this very thirsty people. The predicted comet collision failed to connect, miscalculated or miscarried, and the thermometer is yet unable to determine whether it is to be rain, smoke or sunshine; but this kind of foolishness can't last forever.

FULL DOCKET.—A very full docket was disposed of yesterday morning in the Police Court. There were seventeen State and city cases. It would be a fine study for a phrenologist to have seen the various faces and forms ranged along the "anxious seat." The three leading races each had its representative—the Caucasian, American and Asiatic. Here could be seen "John," with his almond orbs and cue; there "Lo," with his snaky locks and low retreating forehead; here, again, the Anglo Saxon, with his unkempt hair, ragged clothes and debauched features, on which were stamped in indelible characters the impress of a life principally devoted to the twin vices of the age—Bacchus and women. There were as many different expressions lingering about the faces of each as the features of one was dissimilar from its fellow. Some looked a keen concern for the result; others looked hardened and shameless, and others again manifested a stolid indifference, indicating a degree of depravity beyond the reach of morality or reformation. A visit to the Police Court cannot but impress one with the feeling that "more missionaries" are needed in this city.

SUNDAY BURGLARIES.—In view of the fact that burglars are no respecters of the Sabbath, and will enter houses on that day and steal, the same as on other days, it would be well for church goers to leave some member of the family behind to keep watch and ward. Burglars generally prefer to enter premises during the absence of the family at church, to perform their labor of relieving a household of sundry little articles, than at any other time. During such absence, they are less liable to be interrupted than during the night, when all the members of a family are wrapt in slumber. Houses are entered every Sabbath in this city while the folks are at church; in broad daylight, too, and articles of value stolen. Last Sunday the residence of Mr. Heroy, who lives near St. Helen's Hall, was entered about noon and a small sum of money taken and also some articles of trifling value. We do not know how it is elsewhere, but Portland thieves do not yield much to the sacred influences of the Sabbath. The sound of the "church going bell" is a signal for them to start forth on their predatory excursions.

STRONGLY CAST.—From the manner in which the tragedy of Macbeth—the opening piece at Oro Fino Theater, Saturday evening—will be cast by the company soon to make their appearance, we feel warranted in the assertion that this great play will be produced in a manner never surpassed or even equalled, by any other troupe that has yet appeared before a Portland audience. The leading title roles will be assumed by Mrs. C. F. Stewart and Geo. B. Waldron; the former as Lady Macbeth and the latter as Macbeth. The leading [illegible] will be supported by a stronger stock company than has ever before been in this city, assisted by new scenery, properties, accessories and mechanical effects. Manager Waldron has expended a large sum of money in procuring such histrionic talent, and this public will no doubt appreciate his efforts to sustain the legitimate drama and liberally patronize the theater.

MORE TRACKS.—Subsequent examination of the [illegible] below the new saw mill which is supposed to be the scene of the murder of Bovee, has revealed to the officers with more traces of the tragedy. [illegible] distance from the bank of the river, [illegible] the point where the remains were found [illegible], there is a trail leading to the water's edge, as if a body, similar to that of a man, has been dragged. The passage of the weight over the sand before the body is reached, has produced a mark several inches deep, and from appearances must have been caused by the body of the murdered man. Bovee had evidently been stabbed some distance from the edge of the water, and dragged forward and thrown into the river for concealment.

FAST RIDING.—Two young men were up before Judge Denny yesterday on a charge of fast riding. On examination it was proven that these young men, instead of conforming to the prescribed gait of six miles per hour, were moving at a rate not far short of fifteen miles in the same time. The Court fined each defendant $5 and costs. This is the first instance of an arrest for some time on a charge of rapid driving. As the law is violated almost every day, we hope to hear of arrests whenever and wherever the law is violated. A move has been made in the right direction, and more examples should be made until drivers keep the fear of the law before their eyes.

THEATRICAL.—To-morrow morning Charles Vivian, Ed. Montague, M'lles. Gaugain and Gaston, will leave the city for Vancouver, under the management of Mr. G. B. Waldron. A general variety performance will be given at that place Wednesday evening. The company will then leave for the Dalles, at which place performances will be given on Thursday and Friday evenings. From the Dalles the troupe will proceed to Walla Walla and exhibit there on Monday night. It is not yet determined whether the company will return to Portland from that point or proceed "straight" through to Salt Lake.

ASSEMBLY ROOM.—The new building attached to the Insane Asylum near East Portland, and [illegible] the Assembly Room, has been completed and is now being used for the purpose for which it was erected. The room is to be used as a chapel where services will be held on Sundays, and as a place where the inmates can amuse themselves and recreate during the week days. A variety of games, dancing, etc., will be introduced, when the unfortunates can divert themselves in many ways, and take the requisite exercise to promote good health.

CLEANING OUT.—In view of the intended visit to Albany on the 12th inst., by the members of Willamette Engine Co. No. 1, the fire engine is now undergoing a thorough cleaning out. Some repairs are also being made. The machine will be placed in the best possible condition to throw water. This is especially desirable on the part of the members of Willamette No. 1, as there will be a contest between the respective companies, to determine the question as to which can throw the highest stream.

CAPTURED.—The special officer who was detailed to capture the Indian, Narciss, one of the supposed murderers of Bovee, returned last evening from the Dalles. He found Narciss near that place among some Indians, and signified a desire to have "Lo" accompany him to this city. Narciss complied with the request, as he was not in a very good condition to decline the honor. Both Jim and Narciss are now confined in the city jail, and will have a preliminary examination this [illegible].

STREET CARS.—We are informed that a party who went East some time since to make [illegible] arrangements to procure several street cars to be run through the city in several directions, under the management of a Company incorporated over a year ago, is soon expected to return to Portland. It is reported that he has accomplished the object of his visit. If such is the case, this city can boast of its street cars before another year shall have passed away.

ALL THROUGH.—The four remaining parties connected with the Yaquina affair—Butterfield, McDonald, Howard and Rourke—came into the U. S. District Court yesterday morning, withdrew the former plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty to the indictment. Each was fined the sum of $50 and in default of payment were remanded to jail for the period of 25 days apiece, or at the rate of two dollars per day until the liquidation of the fine.

A NEW PARTNER.—A new partner has been taken into the firm of Messrs. Hawley, Dodd & Co., of this city, by one of the partners, as appears by a San Francisco telegram of the 2d inst., which states that "E. A. Hawley and wife of Portland, arrived in that city, overland, from the East. Edward, we will "smile" with you. It is well.

FINED.—In the U. S. District Court yesterday, the argument in the case of the United States vs. John Lee was closed, and the matter submitted to the jury. A verdict of guilty was soon rendered against the defendant, whereupon the Court proceeded to pass sentence by a fine of $100. This the defendant paid and was released from custody.

CLOSED.—The Twentieth Annual Convocation of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Oregon and Washington Territory closed its services Sunday evening with an effective sermon by the Bishop at Trinity Church. This church birth day was observed in a very profitable manner and attended with very interesting ceremonies.

REMOVED.—The scaffolding erected in Ladd's Bank during the time the interior of the counting room was being frescoed, has been removed since the completion of the work. The fresco has very materially enhanced the appearance of the banking room. The interior presents the most handsome aspect of any business office in the city.

MECHANICS' AND LABORERS' LIEN LAW.—Pursuant to notice heretofore given, quite a large number of mechanics and laborers last evening met at the office of Caples & Moreland, and discussed and agreed upon the general features of a mechanics' and laborers' lien law, to be presented to the Legislature for enactment.

TO ADJOURN.—The M. E. Annual Conference which has been in session at Salem since last Thursday morning, will adjourn to-day. A number of clergymen from different portions of the State may be expected to arrive in this city to-day and to-morrow, en route for their various fields of labor.

NOT SO SMOKY.—Persons from below inform us that there is comparatively but little smoke down the Columbia. From the time the mouth of the Wallamet is entered until the city is reached, the smoke is very dense. Persons can scarcely enjoy a full breath of pure air until they get down on the Columbia.

FOREIGN MONEY ORDERS.—Postmaster Wakefield has received information that the treaty with Germany for the issue of money orders between that country and the United States will be shortly consummated and that he expects to be able to issue money orders on Germany some time in October.

DISCHARGED—PAID OFF.—All the jurors in attendance on the term of the U. S. District Court were paid off yesterday by the U. S. Marshal and discharged, there being no further use for their services. The numerous witnesses in the various cases were also paid their fees and allowed to depart.

THREE MONTHS.—"Spud" Murphy, for stealing numerous articles of clothing was arraigned before Judge Denny yesterday morning. In view of the fact that the defendant was an old and frequent offender, the court sentenced him to the county jail for three months.

TO BE DECIDED.—The case of the United States vs. Capt. Patterson, of the bark Edward James, was examined before U. S. Commissioner Wilcox, who took the matter under advisement. A decision will be rendered in the case to-day.

NEW TERM.—The term of the U. S. District Court, which has been in session for some weeks, closed yesterday, and the regular term of the U. S. Circuit Court commenced. Judge S. J. Field will preside as soon as he arrives here.

PROLIFIC.—Sunday must have been a prolific day for rows, as a number of cases of assault and battery were disposed of yesterday in the Police Court, and before the several Justices of the Peace in the city.

PREACHING.—The Oregon Conference, now in session at Salem, will adjourn to-day, and Bishop Foster will preach in the Taylor Street Church in this city this (Tuesday) evening at 7½ o'clock.

TEMPERANCE.—There will be a meeting of the members of the St. James Temperance Society at the hall, Stark street, this evening. All members in good standing are requested to attend.

TO THE FRONT.—Large quantities of railroad iron are now passing to the front on the west side road, from the two vessels unloading at this port—Navigator and Electra.

A TUG BOAT.—We understand that the steamer Mary Bell will not be used any longer on the lower Columbia as a passenger boat, but will be used only as a tug boat.

LOW WATER MARK.—The Columbia and Wallamet rivers are both falling very rapidly, and from the present rate of recedence will soon reach low water mark.

PERSONAL.

Hon. S. J. Johnson, member of the Legislature from Grant county, is now in the city.

E. M. Taylor, of Washington Territory, arrived in San Francisco, overland, last Sunday.

Judge Denny, although able to hold court and administer justice, is still unable to walk to and from his residence, but is compelled yet to ride backward and forward.

Rev. Father Buchard, S. J., well known in this city, lectured on Papal Supremacy, according to the Catholic Doctrine, in Petaluma, Cal., on Tuesday of last week.

Elmer D. Budd, Esq., of Oskaloosa, Iowa, called on us yesterday. He is visiting the Pacific coast with his family, and will probably settle permanently in Oregon or Washington Territory.

Bishop Foster, who presided over the session of the M. E. Conference, just closed, will arrive in the city to-day from Salem. He will depart for California on the next steamer. His duties elsewhere necessarily render his visit to this State very brief.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

PIANO FORTE LESSONS.—Miss E. Rahles, teacher of music, gives notice in another column that she is prepared to accept pupils.

Talking of big stocks of Clothing, have you seen the counters and shelves in the building occupied by Jos. Kohn & Co., 93 Front street. If you have not then waste no time, but accept the first opportunity to call and examine the largest assortment of Clothing ever displayed in Portland. They have goods for the poor! They have goods for the rich! Their prices are fixed to suit the times. They treat you well, and in short you can't leave Kohn & Co.'s without having ordered a complete suit from the grand array of Fall Goods offered by this firm.

PORTLAND, July 25, 1872.

GEO. W. TRAVER,
Agent Home Shuttle Sewing Machine,
112 Front street, Portland.

Sir—For nearly two years I have been using the Home Shuttle Sewing Machine, and its operation has always been all that could be desired. The machine is excellent in every respect. Its simplicity of construction, ease and excellence of operation should win for it general favor.
MRS. H. W. SCOTT.

CANNOT BE EXCELLED.—There has been a decided change in personnel of the photographic establishment of Joseph Buchtel, by the presence of Mr. E. H. Stolte as a partner with Mr. Buchtel. Mr. Carl Bosco, the famous artist, continues to transfer physiognomies to plate in a manner that meets with general approval. Messrs. Buchtel & Stolte have on exhibition daily at the entrance to the Gallery, Corbett's Building, First street, between Washington and Alder, the finest display of work in their particular line ever produced in the State, and in the East it would be difficult to find anything to excel it. The firm and those connected with it need no words of praise. The work they produce is the best endorsement any gallery could have.

Nature's Appeals for Help.

Every indication of debility and exhaustion is a mute appeal of Nature for medicinal aid to arrest the progress of decay. How are these silent appeals of physical weakness to the resources of the healing art usually met? Too often, unfortunately, the drugs prescribed aggravate the symptoms. Whoever recommends drastic purgatives, or mineral salivants or poisonous alkaloids, under such circumstances, is an ally of the ailment and an enemy of the patient. Whoever, on the contrary, advises the broken down and desponding sufferer to resort to that peerless vegetable invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for aid and comfort, is a true philanthropist. It is safe to say there never was an instance in which such advice was given and accepted without the best results. From the very depths of weakness and despondency thousands have been restored to vigor, health and cheerfulness by the renovating operation of this wholesome stimulant and alterative. All its medicinal ingredients are remarkable for their sanative properties, and in combination form an absolute specific for indigestion, liver complaint, nervous affections, rheumatism, intermittent and remittent fevers, general and local weakness and every species of disorder incident to change of season or climate. The stimulative element of this invaluable protective or restorative is not an impure excitant, but the thoroughly rectified essence of sound rye, admitted by all good chemists to be the most healthful of exhilarants.

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.—1860—X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

For Preserving and Beautifying the Human Hair. To Prevent its Falling Out and Turning Grey.

A well-preserved Head of Hair, in a person of middle age, at once bespeaks refinement, elegance, health and beauty. It may truly be called Woman's Crowning Glory, while men are not insensible to its advantages and charms. Few things are more disgusting than thin, frizzly, harsh, untamed Hair, with head and coat covered with Dandruff. Visit a barber and you feel and look like a new man. This is what LYON'S KATHAIRON will do all the time. The charm which lies in well-pared Hair, Glossy Curls, Luxuriant Tresses, and a Clean Head, is noticeable and irresistible.

[illegible] REMINISCENCES. People who have not forgotten the trial of Prince Peter Bonaparte for the murder of Victor Noir will remember that the public verdict if not that of the jury was largely influenced in this strange case by the evidence of one Mr Vincent Natal who described himself as an Englishman consequently disinterested in French political quarrels and who swore that he heard M Wilfrid de Fonvielle assert in the chemist's shop whither Noir was carried that the Prince had been struck by Noir. Nobody else had heard this statement though there were several other people present in the shop but Mr Vincent Natal's assertions were so positive and the fact of his being an Englishman was thought to speak so clear for his truthfulness that a very large number of persons who had considered the Prince guilty of murder were converted to the justifiable homicide view. A trial in the Correctional Court of Paris has just brought Mr Vincent Natal once again before the world, but this time as prisoner convicted of swindling divers persons of sums exceeding $10 000 and the evidence elicited as to his antecedents is of so singular a character that people appear to have been asking in Paris what can have been the worth of Mr Vincent Natal's depositions at Tours and whether there be not some very suspicious mystery attaching to them. Mr Vincent Natal seems to have been giving himself out to people alternately as Count de Natal, Duke de Balan, and Minister of Finance in perspective to M Thiers. During the siege of Paris he made dupes in London by a pretense to organize a relief loan and it is partly at the suit of an Englishman that he has been brought to justice. Another of his victims was M Isaac Periere, from whom he extorted £320 a third of his dupes was bled to the extent of 130 000f. from all his more recent victims he obtained money by representing himself to be an agent from Chiselhurst. Mr Vincent Natal's career has now been checked by a sentence of three years' imprisonment and probably Mr Glanday who presided at Tours and M d'Orns who was Juge d'Instruction in the Prince's trial will both of them deem it unfortunate that they made an exception in Mr Vincent Natal's favor to the French judicial practice of inquiring very closely into the credibility of witnesses. If M d'Orns had fathomed Mr Vincent Natal's life a little he would have discovered that for some time before the Tours trial this gentleman had begun to sport titles to which he had no right and to claim relationship with great people who were strangers to him. Why were not these inquiries made? This is what Paris is asking.—Pall Mall Gazette

AN OBSTINATE HUSBAND AND WIFE.—A Saratoga correspondent says Young P—— who is the heir to corner lots houses stocks mortgages, etc, married a fine young lady nearly as well endowed. They truly esteemed each other, but were so equal in fortune that no duress nor question of marital superiority could bend the wealthy bride. I will give an instance where she was resolved. The husband's greatest pleasure of the year is to come to Saratoga and drink the waters, which he fancies are indispensable to his health and good regimen. The wife is averse to drinking mineral waters, and has fallen into a morbid fear that her growing obesity requires her to go to the sea shore and bathe in the surf. They separate every year, after the only quarrel of the twelve-month, upon this issue, she traveling to Newport, he to the Springs. He swears that the sea air gives him the hay fever. She says Saratoga accumulates flesh and interferes with her motion. From little to big the strife has waged, until Mrs P—— is at all times ready to avow that men come to Saratoga to gamble, and that the society here is coarse and commercial, while the horrible suspicion has seized P—— that his wife is flirting with somebody by the briny tide. A divorce is pending between these enamored but obstinate people, and unless a seaside Saratoga be found combining the attractions of both places another domestic fire will go out upon the divided altar of fashionable summer resorts.

RAILROAD LANDS.

OFFICE OF LAND DEPARTMENT
Oregon and California R R Co and European and Oregon Land Co

PORTLAND OREGON Aug 1 1871

THE COMPANY IS NOW PREPARED TO EXTEND the time for preemption filing of purchasing Railroad Lands [illegible] all parties [illegible] the following terms

The applicant files in this office a claim in the form prescribed to wit

Preemption Claim No ——

To the Land [illegible] of the European and Oregon Land Company

Sir, I [illegible] that I [illegible] upon and [illegible] the [illegible] of land in the county of —— State of Oregon containing —— acres and that I claim a preemption right to purchase said lands at the Company's valuation in accordance with the following resolution of the Directors of said Company adopted the twenty sixth day of May A D 1871 to the terms of which I hereby fully assent

Resolved That those parties settling upon and improving any of the lands of the European and Oregon Land Company before the same are [illegible] for market shall be entitled to the preemption privilege of purchase on the same terms as the Company would sell the land for without improvement, and shall be subject to the same conditions of payment as all other lands belonging to the Company when brought into market, provided such settlers shall file in the Land Office of said Company written application giving notice of such settlement and shall accept the privilege upon the condition that when the price of the land shall be fixed notice thereof shall be sent by the Company's Land Agent through the Postoffice or otherwise as may be convenient to the residence of the party claiming the preemption privilege and if the land is not purchased by the said party within sixty days from the date of such notice the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person

(Name of applicant)

(Postoffice address)

When the application is received a certificate signed by the Agent obligating the Company to the terms will be sent to the claimant in the following form:

PRE EMPTION CERTIFICATE, NO ——

This is to certify that —— of —— county State of Oregon has this day filed in this office a preemption claim to (description of premises) and is hereby entitled to the first privilege of purchasing said land at the Company's valuation (which is to be made without reference to improvements) when the same shall be placed in market in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors of said Company adopted May 26 A D 1871

When the price of the above described land is fixed notice thereof will be sent to the party to whom this Certificate is issued and if the land is not purchased by the said party as the holder hereof within sixty days from the date of said notice, the Company will be at liberty to sell the land to any other person

(Signed)

Land Agent of the E & O Land Co

The lands will be appraised by a competent disinterested party under oath at their actual present value—no fancy or prospective price on the basis of similar lands in the vicinity and when appraisement is made they will be sold in quantity not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres to one person payable in five equal annual installments with interest from date of contract, at ten per cent per annum principal and interest payable in United States Legal Tender Notes. Warranty deeds given after United States Patent issues upon payment in full

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary

623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has [illegible] from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed practice at his Dispensary 623 Kearney street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco where [illegible] patients and those requiring his services may [illegible]

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out [illegible] improved [illegible] has returned with increased facilities for the relief of human suffering

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from a ruined and shattered [illegible] system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitution [illegible] disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage [illegible] In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these terrible life destroying maladies and see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR GIBBON a physician who has made [illegible] diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure them in inveterate case without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are all [illegible] to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who [illegible] skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice [illegible] depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical [illegible] sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves [illegible] uneasiness [illegible] weakness of the limbs [illegible] confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances [illegible] loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue [illegible] consumption night sweats [illegible] frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained [illegible] either in person or by letter and have a [illegible] his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that [illegible] this complaint by any of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering [illegible] any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred [illegible] by resting upon them nor delay to obtain [illegible]

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co. a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
